Quality of execution obtained

Adrian Lee & Partners ('AL&P' or 'the firm') has taken all sufficient steps to obtain the best possible result when executing, placing or transmitting client orders on behalf of a client during the year ended 31 December 2018.

The following factors were taken into account when determining the firm's execution strategy:

- Pricing
- Speed: time it takes to execute a client order;
- Likelihood of execution and settlement: the likelihood the firm will be able to complete the client order;
- Size: the size of the order executed for a client accounting for how the size affects the price of execution; and
- Nature of the transaction or any other consideration relevant to the execution of the order: how the particular characteristics of a client order can affect how best execution is received.

In terms of the relative importance the firm gave to execution factors, likelihood of execution and settlement is a critical factor, followed by pricing and speed of execution, and the size and nature of the transaction.

The firm has increased its usage of electronic trading platforms. JPMorgan Chase Bank moved up to the firm's top counterparty during 2018. HSBC and ANZ moved up into our top five banks rankings while State Street's position in the list has declined but still remained in the firm's top five banks rankings.
